CLARA SMITH, FAVORITE
BLUES SINGER COMING, TO THE BOOKER NEXT WEEK

Clara Smith, the favorite blues singer and Columbia Record star, will be the feature attraction at the Booker Washington Theatre next week. Clara has always been a big winner in this house. She made her first appearance here a few years ago with one of Bob Russell's productions and nearly stopped the show. She has been going big ever since. Others on the bill will be The Brownie Duo, two girls; Sledge and Sledge, a man and woman in fun and frolic; and Strong and Banks in a second hit comedy. The program stacks up as a good entertainer.

RUSSELL & GRIMES IN RETURN
ENGAGEMENT AT THE B. W.

Bob Russell's Company, headed by Billiken, Arizona, is presenting a good entertainment show at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The production is a mixture of fun, dance, and music. Grimes is the leading comedian. The comedy center is on a runaway wife who is followed to the big city, where the country folks do humorous things and see strange sights. There are many good specialty numbers featuring Rogers and Rogers in fancy dancing. Madeline Brannon with the blues. Evelyn Redding, musical grinner. Billy McKeown, Willie McKenna, Charlie Williams, and Grant Kay in numbers that come from either an artistic or humorous angle. A male quartet sings the "South-er" melodies. After a burlesque dual with guns, at the end of the show, the show closes with an even-ly sung and danced.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE RETINA SKYDOME

The Retina Skydome has reopened for the summer season and will produce picture features in conjunction with the Retina Theatre. The Skydome will also present vaudeville features on the stage.

This Saturday the stage attraction will be "The Manhattan Girls," a company of five, direct from the Gayety, presenting a musical comedy with singing, dancing and plenty of jazz. The picture feature will be "The Picture Palace Western."

Buffalo Bill Jr. will be seen in the western play "Full Speed" on Sunday; and there will be special vaudeville on the stage.

THE STAR

"On the Stroke of Three!" The Star Theatre started this Sunday. Madeline Brannon, Clara and Kenneth Hart are the featured players. The story deals with the comedy, interesting life of the simple mountain folk in Ashland Valley, as well as with the social whirl of New York. The story is strange, just as the characters are. The cast consists of June Marlowe, Beverly Bayne, Madeline Brannon, Kenneth Hart, and Gilbert Haines.

The feature attraction next Thursday and Friday will be "The Avenger," a thriller, by Richard Talmadge. It is a story of a man who discovers that the girl he is in love with is the daughter of Wall Street's greatest financier. He thinks that she has been in league with the great man's secretary to obtain from him the country property which is to be used as the site of a giant dam. In a tremendous scene he scores and burns her, but in the end love finds its way.

Hoot Gibson will be seen in a fast action picture, "Taming The West," on Sunday. Big Boy Williams will be featured in "The Avenger" on Monday, a western thriller. Richard Talmadge in "Tearing Through," a domestic drama. "The Unmarried Mother," will be the double bill on Tuesday. Evelyn Brent will be seen in "Alias Mary Flynn" on Wednesday.

BRIEF HISTORY OF DETROIT CHURCH

Bethel A. M. E. Church Organized in 1839. Has Eventful Career.

DETROIT, Mich., June 3.—John Stewart, free and a Methodist, born in Powhatan County, Virginia, was the first Negro Protestant Minister to the Indians in this section. He began work in the year 1819, arriving at Wyandotte village, near Detroit. He succeeded very well, after that in 1810 this work was taken in charge by the Ohio Conference of the M. E. Church, under the operation of its Missionary Society.

The first Colored Methodist Society organized in Detroit proper was in 1839, and was afterwards merged into Bethel A. M. E. church. This organization held its meetings in an old building near Woodward avenue, known as Military Hall, located on the north side of Congress street. This hall was granted by the Common Council on July 9, 1839, to the colored Methodists and was repaired, within a few weeks, to Croghan street, near the northwest corner of Hastings street. It was known as the "Croghan street hall." It was while there that John M. Brown, afterwards Governor of Michigan, was made an exhorter.
